A Letter from the Pastor

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we continue to look at vocations this month and how each of us is called to respond to God's call in our lives, I would like to share once again a very simple way to discern God's call in your life. Sometimes it is hard to even know where to start. Personally, this method has helped me immensely. To be honest, it changed my life. I have shared it before, but I think it is worth sharing again.

This goes back to my teaching days. At the school where I worked, the priest would repeatedly share this method with the children. Oftentimes, he brought it up during school Masses and in classroom visits. Below, is the advice he shared for anyone seeking to know what God has called them to do in their lives.

If you want to know your vocation, there are three simple things you can do every day:

Pray a Hail Mary asking our Blessed Mother to intercede for you, that you may know what God wants you to do with your life.

Pray a Hail Mary asking our Blessed Mother to intercede for you, that you will have the courage to say yes to God's calling for your life.

Pray a Hail Mary asking our Blessed Mother to intercede for you, that will have a "happy death." Pray that when your time in this world comes to an end, you can face death without fear. Pray that you may know peace, because you have tried to do your best to know and respond to God's will.

Simply, pray three Hail Mary's everyday. Simple enough, yet so powerful. As I said, in my own life this practice helped me more than I can say. It changed my life. I went from feeling lost and confused as to what I was supposed to be doing with my life, to hearing more clearly God's call. Through this, I found the courage to leave my happy career as a teacher behind and enter the seminary.

The vocation's prayer that we pray at Mass sums it up perfectly, "Almighty Father, You have created us for some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path that You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous 'Yes.'" We each have a purpose, a call. Let us pray not only for ourselves, but for our young people—and especially, that we all may know and respond to God's call with joy.

In Christ,
Fr. Jim Riehle

"To be a saint is not a privilege of a few... all of us in baptism have the inheritance of being able to become saints. Sanctity is a vocation for everyone."

- Pope Francis

Prayers for the sick

You can find the complete list at anytime online at www.saint-max.org/sick or inside the church by the Book of Prayer.

Parish Office Closed

The parish office will be closed December 8 as it is a Holy Day of obligation, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception.

Construction Update

As construction around the building expansion continues, the main entrance will be closed from 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday, until further notice. All parishioners, visitors, and staff should park by and use the gym entrance.

First Friday Evening Mass

Did you know we have an evening Mass on the first Friday of every month? The next one is Friday, December 2nd at 7:30pm. Curious why the first Friday? Search “First Friday Devotion” at www.catholicculture.org.

Holy Day of Obligation—Dec 8

Thursday, December 8th is a holy day of obligation, as the Universal Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Join us for Masses at 6:30am, 8:30am and 7:30pm.

Sunrise Mass—Dec 10

Morning Mass on Saturday, Dec. 10 will be held at 7:30am, not 8:30am. Mass begins with only the light from candles. As Mass progresses, the rising sun will fill the church with light, reflecting the beautiful reality that the darkness is only temporary, for the Son is rising. This Mass is devoted to Our Lady as the Mother of God, she through whom the Light entered the world. Join us for this special Mass!

Join us on Tuesday, November 29th from 6:30-7:30 to hear more about our outstanding kindergarten program at St. Gabe's. Becoming Catholic
RCIA/OCIA

Why is "RCIA" now "OCIA"?
Part 2 of 5

RCIA = The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
OCIA = The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

When Vatican II promulgated Sacrosanctum Concilium, what followed (in one respect) was the creation of a Latin edition of how Catechumens (unbaptized) should become Catholic. This Latin process was called "Ordo Initiationis Christianae Adultorum" (OICA).

What followed, rightly, was an English Translation that we could use in America, which was improperly translated, not as "Ordo" but as "Rite."

This renaming from "RCIA" to "OCIA" is simply a correction of a mistranslation so that the language we use is more clear.

For those who are interested in Becoming Catholic (RCIA / OCIA), Inquiry meets every Tuesday, from 7-9 PM in Room 2/3, and every Thursday, from 7-9 PM in Room 16. If you're interested in being a sponsor, or for any other questions about the process, please contact Dave at BecomingCatholic@saint-max.org or at 513-777-4322, ext. 137.

Attitude of Gratitude

Susan's Garden

Greetings Gardeners! I want to take this opportunity to express my personal thanks, the thanks of the Community Meal Center, and the thanks of St. Maximilian Kolbe Parish to all of you for your support with Susan's Garden this year.

It was a very good year at the garden. We had help with weeding from the Junior High Youth Group, with harvesting from Cub Scout Pack 509, and with a big mulch donation from the Boy Scouts. Our final tally for the year, including some generous donations from parishioners' home gardens, is slightly over 1100 pounds of fresh produce, all much appreciated by the folks who are served by the Community Meal Center in Hamilton.—Dave Ellerbrock

Consider serving as a Stephen Minister. For more information, please contact us at our confidential email StephenMinistry@saint-max.org or call the confidential phone number 513-777-4322, ext 218.

Family Faith Time

November 27, 2022 –First Sunday of Advent

Isaiah 2:1-5 • Romans 13:11-14 • Matthew 24:37-44

Family Gospel Chats: Read together today's Gospel reading. During the season of Advent, we begin to get ready for Christmas. It can be so exciting with many fun activities, yummy food to eat, and extra time with friends and family. But there is another kind of getting ready we are also called to do. We must get our hearts ready. Jesus, our King, will come again someday. It could be on Christmas Day, it could be next year, it could be any time. If this were the moment we had to face our King, would we be proud of our thoughts, words, and actions in this life? We must work very hard every day to turn away from what isn't loving or kind, and begin to prepare our hearts for our Jesus this Christmas.

Draw Near! Students in Faith on Fire perform a skit for their assignment on “death and resurrection.” They use a blanket to demonstrate how we pull away from God and draw near to Him. Try this game with your family and discover how you can draw near to Jesus during this Advent season.

Rediscover your love!
